BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

Recommended in the accompanying statement, that Mr T. M. Abner may be permitted to draw the arrears of allowance due to him at Rs 25/- p.m. from 16.6.43 to 23.9.1943. (sd)

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1) Submitted: An allowance of Rs 25/- p.m. was sanctioned to Mr B.S. Nanjundiah, (Police Inspector, then) when he was posted to the Central Jail, as Chief Jailer in 1939. In June 1941 he reverted to the Police Dept as Mr Abner had to be posted as Chief Jailer of the Central Jail which was his permanent post. The allowance

Chief Jailor, Central Jail, Bangalore. During the disturbances of 1942 when the prison population increased as a result of detention orders, the Chief Jailor, in view of the heavy and arduous nature of the work devolving upon him then, was given an allowance of Rs 50/- a month for a period of four months. In the G.O. sanctioning this allowance, it has been stated that "the duty allowance sanctioned to the Chief Jailor is raised to Rs 50/- per mensem from 1st Sept 1942 till the end of December 1942", implying thereby that the Chief Jailor was then in receipt of a duty allowance and that it was raised to Rs 50/-, though as a matter of fact he was in receipt of no allowance at the time.
On the basis of the language of this G.O. as much as

as no allowance was attached at the time to the post of the Chief Jailor

To

The Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Law Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that in the year 1939, when there was a large influx of prisoners due to political disturbances, Mr. T.M. Amir, Chief Jailor, Central Jail, Bangalore (now Superintendent, Mysore Jail) was posted as Superintendent, Sub Jail, Thirthahalli on the same pay as has been attached to the post of Chief Jailor (viz., Rs. 150/- in grade Rs. 150-5-175) and was given a duty allowance of Rs. 25/- in addition. He was next transferred as Superintendent of the Prisoners' Camp, Byramangala, where he was allowed to draw the same pay and allowance as at Thirthalli. During this period, one Mr. D.S. Nanjundiah, Inspector of Police, was the Chief Jailor in the Central Jail and he was given an allowance of Rs. 25/- in addition to his pay. (Vide Government Order Nos. P. 3322-4/Pris. 33-39-10 dated the 16th November 1939 and P. 426-8/Pris. 33-39-16 dated the 19th July 1940). Mr. Amir rejoined duty as Chief Jailor in the Central Jail on 16th June 1941 and applied for the allowance of Rs. 25/- which had been sanctioned to Mr. Nanjundiah. Messrs. Safi Darashah, C.A. Machiah and A. Rangaswamy Iyengar who were in turn, Superintendents of the Central Jail spoke well of Mr. Amir's work (extracts enclosed) and recommended him for the allowance. As no allowance had been attached to the post of Chief Jailor, before Mr. Nanjundiah was drafted to this Department, Mr. Amir's application was held over in this office. During the recent political disturbances, the work for the Chief Jailor increased considerably and Mr. Amir was recommended for an allowance of Rs. 50. The Government in their Order No. P. 3211-12/Pris. 68-42-2 dated 17-11-1942 sanctioned the allowance of Rs. 50/- only for a period of four months from 1st September to the end of December 1942. This order reads that "the duty allowance sanctioned to the Chief Jailor, Central Jail, Bangalore, is raised to Rs. 50/- per mensem from 1st September 1942 till the end of December 1942". The Government appear perhaps to have been under the impression that Mr. Amir was drawing an allowance of Rs. 25/- per mensem. This, however, was not the case. He had not drawn any allowance ever since he rejoined duty in the Jail. His work as Chief Jailor was satisfactory. During the recent political disturbances, he had to deal with a number of political prisoners and detenus given to mischief and he conducted himself very well and discharged his duties efficiently. Mr. S.B. Basappa, the present Chief Jailor, is getting an allowance in addition to his pay. It appears reasonable that this concession should be extended to Mr. Amir also. In the circumstance, I recommend that he may be permitted to draw the arrears of allowance due to him at Rs. 25/- per mensem for the period from 16-6-1941 - the date on which he rejoined duty in the Jail to 23rd September 1943 - the date on which he took charge as Superintendent of the Mysore Jail.

I beg to state that Mr. B.S. Nanjundiah who was acting as Chief Jailor in the absence of Mr. Ameer on other duty and on leave, had been granted such an allowance on the recommendation of the then Superintendent and that Mr. Ameer himself had been drawing the same allowance during his deputation as Superintendent of the Prisoner's Camps at Thirthahalli and at Byramangala. Mr. Ameer rejoined duty at this Jail very shortly after I took charge of my present appointment, and I have found him to be thoroughly trustworthy and zealous and painstaking in his work. Besides his very many other duties, which he has discharged very satisfactorily, he has been paying special attention to the organisation and working of the Jail industries, and has turned out very good work in this direction.

I request, therefore, that his case may very kindly be recommended to Government for the grant of the special allowance of Rs. 25/- per mensem from the date of his rejoining duty as Chief Jailor of this Jail.

Extract from letter No. 499/F.12 dated 28-2-1942 from Mr. Safi Darashah, Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore to the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

Though Mr. B.S. Nanjundiah was originally granted the allowance because of the abnormal influx of prisoners in the Jail during the political agitation in 1940, the allowance was continued even after all political prisoners had been liberated (September 1940), it being treated as a duty allowance attached to the post. I may be permitted to state in this connection (as already submitted in my previous letter) that with the starting of the two new industries, and with the Jail nearly always full to its maximum capacity, the duties of the Chief Jailor are as onerous and responsible now as at any previous time. I strongly recommend, therefore, that Mr. Amir's representation in this connection may be favourably considered, and that the grant of the allowance to him may be very kindly recommended to Government.

Extract of letter No. 2332 dated 24th September 1942 from Mr. Safi Darashah, Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore.

I have the honour to state that with the influx of a very large number of political detenus into this Jail, the work of the Jail staff has very considerably increased. ..... This increase has thrown a great deal of extra work on the Chief Jailor of this Jail, the latter officer being placed in immediate charge of the detenus in addition to his other duties. I beg to bring to your kind notice in this connection that the Chief Jailor's duties here are much more onerous and responsible than those of the Superintendents of any of the Sub Jails in the State which have recently been started, and it was because the services of the present Chief Jailor could not be spared from this Jail that he was not recommended to you for being posted as Superintendent of one of the said Sub Jails; this was in spite of the fact that such a posting would certainly have entailed an increase in emoluments, which he would very well have deserved in view of his very satisfactory work in this Jail.

In this connection I may kindly invite reference to this Offic

Office letter No. 3301/F.12 dated the 28/30th November 1942 recommending that Mr. T.M. Amir may be permitted to draw the Duty Allowance of Rs. 25/- per mensem from the date of his taking charge as Chief Jailor in this Jail and to request the favour of an early reply.

Extract of letter No. 1574 dated 18-5-1943 from Mr. A. Rangaswamy Iyengar, Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore.

X X X

In G.O. No. P. 426-8/Pris. 33-39-16 dated 19-7-1940, an allowance of Rs. 25/- was sanctioned to Mr. B.S. Nanjundiah, who was drafted as Acting Chief Jailor from the Police Department, vice Mr. T.M. Amir on other duty. On his reversion to the Police Department, the permanent Chief Jailor Mr. T.M. Amir rejoined duty in this Jail on 16th June 1941 and no allowance was drawn for him. .....

On your recommendation to Government the duty allowance of Rs. 25/- sanctioned to the Chief Jailor, having been raised to Rs. 50/- per mensem, from 1-9-42 till the end of December 42 in G.O. No. P. 3311-12/Pris. 68-42-2 dated 17-11-42, this allowance was drawn by him for those four months only - while passing the above order, raising the duty allowance to Rs. 50/- it seems the consideration was that, like the acting incumbant, the Chief Jailor was althrough drawing a duty allowance of Rs. 25/- per mensem, after he took charge in this Jail on 16-6-1941. This was not so, as already explained above.

X X X

In view of the fact that he is a competent officer, versed in the technique and practice of the department, his case may receive your favourable consideration and recommended to Government.

The Secretary

the Maharaja of Mysore, LAW DEPARTMENT,
B A N G A L O R E.

Sir,

Adverting to your letter No.P.5231 dated 18th February 1944 regarding the arrear claim of Mr.T.M.Amir for drawing the duty allowance of Rs.25/- for the period from 16th June 1941 to 23rd September 1943 as Chief Jailor, Central Jail, I have the honor to state that a Duty Allowance of Rs.25/- per month was sanctioned in G.O.No.P.426-8 Pris.33-39-16 (Fl.239) dated 19-7-40 to Mr. B.S.Nanjundiah, Police Inspector, posted as Chief Jailor, Central Jail, Bangalore, and the allowance so sanctioned was evidently personal to the incumbent then holding the place and not attached to the post of the Chief Jailor.

2. The duty allowance of Rs.50/- per month sanctioned in G.O.No.P.3311-12 Pris.68-42-2 (Fl.150 dated 17-11-42) dated 17-11-42 to Mr.T.M.Amir from Ist September 1942 to the end of December 1942 recommended by the Inspector General of Prisons was in consideration of the extra work on account of the influx of a large number of detenues in the Central Jail. It was therefore purely special to the occasion.

As no duty allowance was attached to the appointment held by Mr. T.M.Amir prior to September 1942, the claim in question recommended by the Inspector-General of Prisons is inadmissible.

READINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS
THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Read:-

Government Order No. P. 6632-3/Pris. 33-39-14, dated the 5th April 1940, sanctioning the grant of a duty allowance of Rs.50/- per mensem and free quarters or a house rent allowance of Rs. 20/- per mensem in lieu thereof to Amildars and Acting Amildars who have been posted to the Prison Department.

2. Correspondence ending with letter No. 824-16, dated the 8th March 1943, from the Inspector-General of Prisons forwarding proposals for the grant of a uniform rate of allowance to the officers of the Revenue, Police Departments etc., who have been posted to the Prison Department.

ORDER NO. P. 9339-41/Pris 136-41-2
Dated, Bangalore, the 30th June 1943.

During the years 1939 and 1942, it was found necessary to post officers from other Departments such as Revenue, Police, etc., as Superintendents of Jails and Sub-Jails. In the case of Amildars and Acting Amildars, who were posted for duty in the Prison Department, it was ordered in 1939 that they might be given a duty allowance of Rs. 50/- with rent-free quarters or a house-rent allowance of Rs. 20/- per mensem. In the case of Police Inspectors, a duty allowance of Rs. 25/- with rent-free quarters or a house-rent allowance of Rs. 20/- was granted.

In 1942, when similar postings of the marginally noted

1) Mr.A.Rangaswamy Iyengar, Superintendent of Police,
2) " R.Varadaraja Pillai, Assistant Commissioner,
3) " C.Suryanarayana Rao, Amildar,
4) " T.H.Ameer, Amildar,
5) " T.S.Chandrasekhariah, Acting Assistant Superintendent of Police.
6) " S.B.Basappa, Police Inspector,
7) " Krishna Iyengar, Sub-Assistant Surgeon,
8) " G.Suryanarayana, Chief Officer, and
9) " L.Subrahmanya Rao, Sub-Registrar.

} Officers of other Departments were made, allowances were not regulated in accordance with the above scale

as the Department did not propose them uniformly, perhaps by over-sight due to the urgency for their posting, with the result that while in some cases, allowances at the prescribed scale were allowed, in others only a duty allowance or rent-free quarters, and in some cases, no allowances of either kind, was given.

The Inspector-General of Prisons after examining these cases has now submitted proposals for the systematisation of the grant of these allowances, by granting a uniform rate of duty allowance of Rs. 50/- with rent-free quarters or a house-rent allowance of Rs. 20/- per mensem to all such officers of and above the status of Amildars and Acting Amildars and a duty allowance of Rs. 30/- with rent-free quarters or a house-rent allowance of Rs. 20/- per mensem to other officers posted for duty as Superintendents of Jails or Sub-Jails inclusive of the of the Central Jail, Bangalore.

Government are pleased to sanction the proposals of the Inspector-General of Prisons and accordingly direct that the allowances now sanctioned be given to the officers of other Departments posted to the Prison Department, referred to above, with effect from the date they joined duty in the Prison Department, and so long as they serve in that Department, including Mr. T.S.Chandrasekhariah and Mr. A.Ranganswamy Iyengar, in whose cases also the duty allowance of Rs. 50/- plus rent-free quarters or a house-rent allowance of Rs. 20/- will be allowed for the entire period they were in the Prison Department. The extra cost involved will be met out of the sanctioned grants of the Prison Department.
